Student Speaker | Sara Prisinzano

Sara is a senior in the Pamplin College of Business pursuing a degree in Accounting and Information Systems. In addition to her academic accomplishments, she has exemplified outstanding leadership as an Engage Undergraduate Teaching Assistant, Chief Operating Officer of Members for the Sigma Omega Upsilon International Business Fraternity, and an Intramural Sports Supervisor with Virginia Tech Recreational Sports. Sara has also demonstrated a strong commitment to service through her involvement with the Big Event, Relay for Life, Special Olympics, and the Hokie Half. Upon graduation, Sara will join EY as a GPS Assurance Associate.

Keynote Speaker | Melissa Taylor

Melissa Taylor is the Vice Chair of Clients & Markets and member of the U.S. Management Committee at KPMG LLP, a U.S. audit, tax, and advisory firm. As a trusted leader focused on creating long-term value, Melissa is at the forefront of driving firmwide growth by bringing the full breadth of KPMG together, strengthening client relationships, and elevating the KPMG brand across sectors and geographies. Her leadership is centered on listening closely to clients, tackling their most complex challenges, and empowering them to navigate change with confidence.

With a career spanning more than three decades at KPMG, Melissa has a proven track record of working alongside leaders of large, global companies, primarily in the Life Sciences and Consumer & Retail sectors. She has led some of the firm's most significant audit engagements and held several senior leadership roles, including serving on the KPMG Board of Directors and as Audit Sector Lead for Life Sciences. Her extensive global experience includes a four-year secondment in London and time as a former member of the IFRS Advisory Council Board (IASB/ISSB) and KPMG Global Board Audit Quality Committee.

Melissa's time at Virginia Tech laid the foundation for the career and values that continue to guide her today. She earned her Bachelor of Science in Accounting from the Pamplin College of Business, where she discovered not only a passion for accounting, but also the importance of community and mentorship.

What continues to motivate Melissa today is developing the next generation of leaders and helping others realize the power of relationships in shaping meaningful careers. She remains an active supporter of Virginia Tech and mentor to students and alumni.

Melissa resides in Virginia with her husband and daughter. Outside of work she enjoys traveling and is an avid Hokie sports fan.
